H. J. CALDWELL, Sup't. Miss Wetmore has charge of Grade No done business and paid losses for the Mr. Snook of Grade No. 4. And Miss Flint of Grade No. 5.

We purpose publishing Weekly Reports of our schools that parents may learn more about them. Teachers will be unable to present, good reports if parents do not do all they can to assist them. Parents can make the per cent of Attendance high, the "Tardy" Column a blank, the "Excuses Received" Column nearly so, and the Visitors Column full, if they only individually resolve to do so. The past week has been one of serious injury to our schools; the children have been too much excited about their Musical Exhibition to accomplish much in their studies. Many have been absent on the excuses of parents. The Board have right smart places, but none of them can ordered that teachers shall excuse pupils equal Warren in mud. We can swamp from school only upon the written rethem all in that item, and if we don't quest of Parent or Guardian, except in take care, we will sink the town in pub- cases of sickness. Some parents so manage at home that the mere sight of their A. & G. W. R'y is to be double tracked written excuse. If parents will not refuse their children these excuses, and are careless about sending them in good season to school, it will be impossible for Don't Believe Them, teachers to present good reports.
